Worship Service with Communion - June 6, 2021 Second Sunday after Pentecost

MESSAGE: Bearing Fruit that will Last: Relational
SCRIPTURES: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13 and 1 John 4:20

CALL TO WORSHIP

LEADER: We are called to bear fruit: Fruit that will last.
PEOPLE: We are called to be fruitful: To make disciples that will endure.
LEADER: To bear fruit: the branch must abide in the vine.
PEOPLE: We come today, seeking to strengthen our connection to Christ.
LEADER: Jesus bore our sins on the cross.
PEOPLE: Let us bear with one another in love, that the world might know us as disciples; the fruit of the true vine.

OPENING PRAYER

Lord, you have called us to yourself; and to one another in love. You have called us and inspired us to bear witness to you and your love to the ends of the earth. Continue the good work you have begun in us; and inspire all the more our desire to seek and pursue your will; that we might become bearers of fruit; fruit that will last. Amen

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

After nearly 15 months the Re-Entering Well Taskforce is pleased to safely welcome everyone back to in-person worship at Poolesville Memorial United Methodist Church with no mask mandate. We know some will choose to continue wearing masks based upon State and County guidelines and out of prudence regarding personal health risks. We fully support you and your decision. This Sunday June 6 will also be the first 'live' choral anthem since March 2020!! We look forward to you being present in worship to welcome the Choir back to the chancel as well.

We, the Re-Entering Well Taskforce, continue to work towards re-establishing in-person Children's Ministries, Community Dinners, and all the ministries that have been effected by the pandemic, and we will keep you informed as we do.

We thank you for your grace, patience, and faithfulness throughout this challenging season, and look forward to moving ahead together in ministry beyond the pandemic.
