We have a date and time for our Food Safety Class!
Sat, Apr 23, 8am-4pm.

If you would like to join in the fun and obtain your Food Service Manager license contact the church office. How it works: you will receive a 28-page booklet and a 40 question pre-test. You will read through the book (there's good stuff in there that will be on the exam) and bring the completed pre-test to class. Just so you know...no food service background is needed; the test will be taken at the end of the class (Chef Robert emphasizes what will be on the test during class); after you get your results you will need to go to a Montgomery County building in Wheaton to have your picture taken and pay $50 to be licensed. If you know of anyone else that wants to join in the class or if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out at 301-349-2010 or office@pmumc.org.

What is a Certified Lay Minister? Certified Lay Ministers serve in local churches providing assistance to pastors. Sometimes, they are assigned by a district superintendent to provide pastoral leadership in small congregations. The idea of laity serving as lay preachers, exhorters, and class leaders goes back to the early day of Methodism.

Certified Lay Ministers preach the Word, provide care for the congregation, assist in program leadership, and serve as witnesses in the community to further the growth and mission. There are four major components in the formation of these leaders which include training, supervision, support and accountability.

Are You Being Called to Become a Certified Lay Minister? July 1 (deadline) -- Applications for the next class of Certified Lay Ministers for the Baltimore-Washington Conference Class of 2022-2024 are now being accepted. To see if you qualify, visit

<https://www.bwcumc.org/ministries/certified-lay-ministers/>

This application process includes meeting with the pastor, local SPRC, and the DS before the July 1 deadline. The next class will start in September and is a two-year commitment. Questions go to Linda Flanagan, Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries.
